

FELIX ROSENQVIST

2016 PRESENTATION

RACING ON BOTH SIDES OF THE ATLANTIC

A multiple title winner and frontrunner in every championship he ever contested, Sweden's Felix Rosenqvist is the reigning FIA F3 European Champion and one of the most exciting up-and-coming talents in international motorsport.

Having finished second in the FIA F3 European Championship in 2013, Felix went one better in 2015, lifting the prestigious title after a record-breaking season driving for Italian outfit Prema Powerteam.

Felix Rosenqvist is the only driver in the history of Formula 3 to have won each of the accolades that make up the category's "grand slam": the European Championship, the Grand Prix de Pau (2014), the Masters of Formula 3 (twice in 2011 and 2013) and the blue-riband Macau Grand Prix (twice in 2014 and 2015).

Felix is backed by the Mercedes-Benz young driver development programme and is the official Mercedes-AMG DTM test and reserve driver.

2016 sees Felix undertake his most intense season to date, racing on two continents. The packed agenda includes a campaign in the American Indy Lights series with Belardi Auto Racing, and an assault on the Blancpain GT Series Sprint Cup driving the new Mercedes-AMG GT3 for French squad AKKA-ASP.

Formula 3 Euro Series*

Felix Rosenqvist, 24, lives in the city of Malmö in his native Sweden.

Felix began his career in karting, finishing second in the Nordic Championship in 2005 and competing successfully on the international stage until 2007 when he stepped up into single-seater racing and Asian Formula Renault. After finishing fourth overall and ending his debut season as rookie of the year, Rosenqvist stayed on in the Far East and won 10 out of 15 races to claim the 2008 Formula Asia 2.0 title.

In 2009, he returned to Sweden and won both the North European Zone and Swedish Formula Renault championships. At the end of the year, he did two one-offs – resulting in a SEAT Leon Supercopa podium on his touring car debut in France as well as two victories and a new lap record at the Formula Palmer Audi finale at Snetterton, Great Britain.

2010 saw Rosenqvist make the transition to Formula 3 with an assault on the German championship, winning two races and finishing on the podium eight times before ending the season on a high by coming home ninth on his debut in the prestigious Macau Grand Prix street race in China.

For 2011, Rosenqvist progressed into Formula 3 Euro Series with German outfit Mücke Motorsport, racking up ten podiums and one win. 2011 also saw Felix become the first Swede ever to win the tradition-steeped Masters of Formula 3 event at Zandvoort – a feat he would later repeat in emphatic fashion in 2013, winning comfortably from pole position and throwing in the fastest lap of the race.

In 2012, Rosenqvist dovetailed a second season of Formula 3 Euro Series racing with an attack on the revived FIA European F3 Championship, in which he finished third overall – winning four out of the final six races.

At the end of the campaign, he once again underlined his status as one of the fastest F3 drivers on the globe by finishing a close second in the Macau Grand Prix.

THE JOURNEY SO FAR

In 2013, the restructured FIA Formula 3 European Championship gathered all the leading F3 teams and drivers under one umbrella, with Rosenqvist again racing for Mücke Motorsport and finishing second overall with ten wins and 18 podiums from 30 races.

He also equalled the record previously held by current F1star Valtteri Bottas as he bagged a second Masters of Formula 3 triumph.

In November 2014, Rosenqvist became the first Swede in 22 years to win the end-of-season F3 world finale in Macau, completing a season of street track success on the back of victory in the Grand Prix de Pau (France) earlier in the year.

Having won each of the major F3 standalone events, 2015 finally saw Rosenqvist add the only remaining accolade to his list of F3 achievements; the FIA F3 European Championship title. Now racing for Italian squad Prema Powerteam, he was crowned champion with one round to spare after a dominant display at the Nürburgring which netted him a clean-sweep of pole positions, race wins and fastest laps.

He then brought the season to a perfect end by repeating his Macau Grand Prix win of the previous year, becoming only the second driver in history to win the event twice.

2016 will be Rosenqvist's most intense season to date, doubling up on two sides of the Atlantic by combining America's Indy Lights series with a campaign in the European-based Blancpain GT Series Sprint Cup. He also takes up the position of official test and reserve driver for the Mercedes-AMG DTM team.

Felix Rosenqvist is part of the Swedish national motor racing team and supported by the Mercedes-Benz young driver development programme. He currently holds the all-time F3 lap records at the Portimão, Nürburgring, Zandvoort and Ricardo Tormo (Valencia) circuits.

PROGRAMME

The Blancpain GT Series Sprint Cup is the world's leading championship for GT3-spec cars. It is staged across five weekends of racing at top European venues, and boasts a massive grid of 40 cars and 80 drivers (two drivers per car). Each round features two races, both spanning one hour and including compulsory pit stops for a driver swap and a change of tyres. This is where Felix Rosenqvist makes his GT debut in 2016.

www.blancpain-gt-series.com

The final rung on the "Road to Indy" career ladder, Indy Lights is America's answer to GP2. The majority of the races are run on the Indy Car support bill, making it a hugely popular platform for teams and drivers alike. Putting career progression at the forefront, organisers are awarding the Indy Lights champion a 1 million US dollar scholarship towards an Indy Car drive the following season, with three starts – including one in the famous Indy 500 – guaranteed.

Felix Rosenqvist became a winner in Indy Lights on his maiden weekend in the series, triumphing from pole position on the streets of St. Petersburg (Florida).

He played the laconic, hard-racing Scandinavian to Raffaele Marcelli's shy, Latin flakiness in the battle for the European F3 title, and only just lost out. Rosenqvist led the Mücke Motorsport challenge at the front, while on the one hand he benefited from being the Berlin team's only realistic contender at the front, there was the impression that he was fighting a pretty daunting Prema juggernaut. He did it all with good humour, and took a dominant win in the Masters of F3 too at a Zandvoort circuit where he is almost invincible. Fully deserves a crack at the professional levels of the sport.

F3 Masters: Felix Rosenqvist takes second victory

Felix Rosenqvist claimed a second Masters of Formula 3 victory of his career with a dominant display at Zandvoort.

The Swede converted pole position into the lead of the race aboard his Mücke Motorsport Dallara-Mercedes and had little trouble pulling away from the pack led by Prema driver Alex Lynn.

Rosenqvist, who won the race in 2011, was more than two seconds ahead in the space of four laps and was more than four seconds clear of Lynn when he lost over a second and a half on the 16th lap.

He had to back off when he encountered the medical car on the track and lost more time on the following lap because of excessive pick-up after going off line.

The Mücke driver was able to re-extend his lead and was nearly six seconds ahead of Lynn at the conclusion of the 25-lap race.

Rosenqvist said: "This was the perfect weekend: I was fastest in every session, took pole, the victory and fastest lap."

Rosenqvist på samma lista som Hamilton

Vad har Felix Rosenqvist, 19, gemensamt med David Coulthard och Lewis Hamilton?

Alla tre har vunnit RTL GP Masters i F3.

– En otrolig känsla, och utan tvekan den seger jag värdesätter mest hittills i min karriär, säger Rosenqvist.

Felix Rosenqvist lyckades under söndagen med det som ingen annan svensk tidigare har gjort. Han vann det klassiska storloppet i formel 3 på holländska Zandvoort.

Rosenqvist ledde från start till mål och körde över mållinjen drygt fem sekunder före tvåan Marco Wittmann, Tyskland.

Spielberg European F3: Felix Rosenqvist adds spectacular third win

Felix Rosenqvist overtook Daniil Kvyat in stunning fashion to set up his third Formula 3 European Championship win of the weekend at Spielberg and further close on the series lead.

The Mücke Motorsport driver, whose result made him the first man to win three times in the series in a single round, started third on the grid and held the position through the first two corners as Raffaele Marciello and Kvyat disputed the top spot.

But as the front two held each other up at the following corner, both Rosenqvist and Latifi's superior exits brought them alongside the pair.

Having safely outdragged championship leader Marciello into the Turn 4 braking zone, Rosenqvist then drove around the outside of Kvyat's Carlin machine through the two following high-speed left-handers.

Felix Rosenqvist vann TRE F3-lopp: "Dörrar öppnas"

MOT FORMEL 1 Efter helgens succé har Felix Rosenqvist stärkt sina aktier för att nå en plats i formel 1. Efter de tre F3-segrarna fick han även beröm av Mercedes F1-VD Toto Wolff. "Detta är en avgörande säsong för min framtid", säger Rosenqvist.

F1-mästaren hyllade Felix Rosenqvist inför tävlingen.
Då vann han allt. Och hyllades av ett F1-team efteråt.

När Sportbladet träffade den tidigare F1-mästaren Damon Hill påpekade han omgående att det finns en stor svensk talang som kör i F3.

I helgens EM-deltävling på Red Bull Ring i Österrike visade Felix Rosenqvist att Hill har rätt. Han hade inte pole position i något av de tre loppen, men han vann samtliga. Han hade dessutom snabbaste varvet i varje lopp och satte ett nytt banrekord. Därmed är han historisk.

Ingen förare har tidigare vunnit samtliga lopp under en tävlingshelg.

He ticks a lot of the same boxes as Kimi Raikkonen as far as his bullshit-free approach is concerned, yet he adds to this an obliging, wry personality. Finances (or lack of them) mean he's spent a lot of time in F3, where he doesn't have to find too much in the way of personal budget, but the next step has proved a tough one.
